

Job Description

Job Title:	Developer
Reports to:	Ron Darch
Employee Responsibilities:	Yes
Main Purpose of Job: As a developer to be responsible for the coding, innovative design and layout of our website. Developer responsibilities include building our websites from concept all the way to completion. The developments will range from both front and backend development.
Main Responsibilities: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Work closely with Project Managers and Senior Developers to ensure the timely completion of projects.• Work with Senior Developers to improve our development tools, processes, technology stack, application performance and stability.• Implement technical projects to facilitate business efforts and goals.• Provide and support code reviews to improve the quality of developments released.• Assist in troubleshooting production issues to resolution ensuring that measures are put in place where possible to stop reoccurrence.• Document new developments and update existing documentation within confluence.• Provide out of hours support as required in line with the organisation SLAs
Knowledge, skills and experience required: Essential Commercial experience of least one of the following <ul style="list-style-type: none">• React• Node.JS• C#• JavaScript• TypeScript Desirable Some experience/knowledge of: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• React Native• AWS Lambda• Documentation writing• Understanding of testing strategies.• Understanding of Agile methodologies.
Prepared by: Ron Darch Name: Ron Darch Date: 21/06/2021	